

Database Schema of “Ticket Sales System”

Descriptions

- users: This table helps us to record all users in the system. Each user can have many orders.
- orders: This table helps us to record all the orders and differentiate them by who made it. Each order can has one user and each order can be associated with many tickets through ticket_orders table.
- tickets: This table helps us to record all types of existant tickets (“Andes”, “Pacífico”, etc) for each event. Each ticket can be associated with many orders through ticket_orders table.
- ticket_orders: This table helps us to associate the tickets with orders that had been made.
- events: This table helps us to record all events in the system. Each event can have many tickets and each event can have one venue.
- venues: This table helps us to record all venues that hosts event. each venue can have many events.